2012 IIROC 14

Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada
Hearing Panel (Ontario District Council)

Heard: February 28, 2012
Decision: March 19, 2012
(8 paras.)

Hearing Panel:
The Honourable John B. Webber, Q.C. (Chair), Sandy Grant, Guenther Kleberg

Appearances:
Charles Corlett, IIROC Senior Enforcement Counsel
Sean D. Sadler, Respondent’s Counsel

DECISION AND REASONS

¶ 1 The parties entered into a Settlement Agreement which the Panel approved on February 28, 2012. The Staff of the Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada (IIROC) conducted an investigation into the conduct of the Respondent, Pope & Company Limited.

¶ 2 The Respondent agrees that, between December 2008 and January 2011, it contravened the following requirements of the Universal Market Integrity Rules (UMIR):

(i) failed to make reasonable efforts to ensure that orders were executed at the best price, contrary to UMIR 5.2 and UMIR Policy 5.2; and

(ii) failed to have adequate policies and procedures in place to ensure reasonable efforts were made to execute orders at the best price, contrary to UMIR 7.1 and UMIR Policy 7.1.

¶ 3 The relevant facts recited in paragraphs 3 and 4 in the Statement of Allegations were accepted by the Respondent.

¶ 4 An overview of UMIR 5.2 is found in paragraphs 8 to 12 of the Statement of Allegations in these words:

3. The best price obligation set out in UMIR 5.2 is a general duty owed to the market as a whole to ensure fairness to all market participants and promote competition, efficiency and transparency while maintaining investor confidence in the market. UMIR Policy 5.2 requires a
Participant to adopt policies and procedures that will ensure compliance with its ongoing best price obligation and to review its policies and procedures on an ongoing basis to reflect changes to the trading environment and market structure.

4. UMIR 7.1 and UMIR Policy 7.1 set out the regulatory obligations for trading supervision. UMIR Policy 7.1, Part 6 requires that each Participant must adopt written policies and procedures that are adequate, taking into account the business and affairs of the Participant, to ensure compliance with the ‘best price obligation’. The policies and procedures must set out the steps or process to be followed by the Participant that constitute the ‘reasonable efforts’ that the Participant will take to ensure that orders receive the ‘best price’ when executed on a marketplace.

The contraventions are summarized in paragraph 5 in these words:

5. … Pope & Company failed to make reasonable efforts to ensure compliance with UMIR 5.2 and did not adopt adequate policies and procedures to ensure compliance with the best price obligation.

Conclusion

¶ 5 The Respondent did not make reasonable efforts to comply with the “best price obligation” until January 2011 and did not update its written policies and procedures in this regard as set forth in paragraph 12 of the Statement of Allegations. After an investigation by IIROC in September 2008, the Respondent was advised that it must make reasonable efforts to access protected marketplaces. In February 2010 it was found that there was a significant deficiency in the Respondent’s compliance with the “best price obligation”. From March 2010 until April 2010, the Respondent made efforts to correct these deficiencies. These efforts can be found, in greater detail, in paragraphs 17 through 30 of the Statement of Allegations. The failures as to adequate policies and procedures are fully described in paragraphs 31, 32 and 33 in the Statement of Allegations. We were advised by counsel for IIROC that effective February 1, 2011 Rule 5.2 and Policy 5.2 were repealed. The Respondent has had no history of regulatory violations. The Respondent cooperated with IIROC Staff throughout the investigation.

Penalty

¶ 6 In view of the nature of the conduct and the efforts made by the Respondent, and the repealing of the appropriate legislation, the agreed to settlement of a fine of $30,000 payable by the Respondent to IIROC and to costs of $5,000 payable by the Respondent to IIROC is entirely reasonable.

¶ 7 In approving this settlement, we are mindful of the words of the District Council in the decision of Re Milewski, [1999] I.D.A.C.D. No. 17, decided on July 28, 1999. The District Council made these comments at page 9:

Although a settlement agreement must be accepted by a District Council before it can become effective, the standards for acceptance are not identical to those applied by a District Council when making a penalty determination after a contested hearing. In a contested hearing, the District Council attempts to determine the correct penalty. A District Council considering a settlement agreement will tend not to alter a penalty that it considers to be within a reasonable range, taking into account the settlement process and the fact that the parties have agreed. It will not reject a settlement unless it views the penalty as clearly falling outside a reasonable range of appropriateness. Put another way, the District Council will reflect the public interest benefits of the settlement process in its consideration of specific settlements.

¶ 8 After we had approved the settlement, we advised counsel that we would provide brief reasons as to why we approved the settlement. These are our reasons.

Dated at Toronto, this 19th day of March 2012.

STATEMENT OF ALLEGATIONS

I. REQUIREMENTS CONTRAVENED

1. Between December 2008 and January 2011, Pope & Company Limited (“Pope & Company”) contravened the following Requirements of UMIR:
   (i) failed to make reasonable efforts to ensure that orders were executed at the best price, contrary to UMIR 5.2 and UMIR Policy 5.2; and
   (ii) failed to have adequate policies and procedures in place to ensure reasonable efforts were made to execute orders at the best price, contrary to UMIR 7.1 and UMIR Policy 7.1.

2. Schedule “A” sets out the text of the relevant UMIR Requirements.

II. RELEVANT FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS

Overview

3. The best price obligation set out in UMIR 5.2 is a general duty owed to the market as a whole to ensure fairness to all market participants and promote competition, efficiency and transparency while maintaining investor confidence in the market. UMIR Policy 5.2 requires a Participant to adopt policies and procedures that will ensure compliance with its ongoing best price obligation and to review its policies and procedures on an ongoing basis to reflect changes to the trading environment and market structure.

4. UMIR 7.1 and UMIR Policy 7.1 set out the regulatory obligations for trading supervision. UMIR Policy 7.1, Part 6 requires that each Participant must adopt written policies and procedures that are adequate, taking into account the business and affairs of the Participant, to ensure compliance with the “best price obligation”. The policies and procedures must set out the steps or process to be followed by the Participant that constitute the “reasonable efforts” that the Participant will take to ensure that orders receive the “best price” when executed on a marketplace.

5. During the relevant period, Pope & Company failed to make reasonable efforts to ensure compliance with UMIR 5.2 and did not adopt adequate policies and procedures to ensure compliance with the best price obligation.

Background

6. Pope & Company is registered as an investment dealer, is a Participating Organization of the Toronto Stock Exchange (“TSX”), a Member of the TSX Venture Exchange (“TSXV”) and therefore a Participant under UMIR.

7. Pope & Company is an institutional investment firm located in Toronto, Ontario.

Overview of UMIR 5.2
8. On May 16, 2008, Market Regulation Services Inc. instituted amendments to UMIR 5.2, which required that a Participant make reasonable efforts at the time of execution of an order to ensure that:

- (a) in the case of an offer, the order is executed at the best bid price; and
- (b) in the case of a bid, the order is executed at the best ask price.

9. Policy 5.2, which accompanied the Rule, further provided that “reasonable efforts” did not require that a Participant become a member, user or subscriber of each protected marketplace. A Participant will have been found to have made “reasonable efforts” to comply with the best price obligation if the Participant has:

- (a) entered the order on a marketplace that will ensure compliance with the best price obligation;
- (b) used an acceptable order router; or
- (c) provided the order to another Participant for entry on a marketplace.

10. Each Participant must adopt policies and procedures to ensure compliance with its best price obligation. Each Participant must review its policies and procedures on an ongoing basis to reflect changes to the trading environment and market structure.

11. Participants were provided with ample notice of the best price obligation under UMIR and given ample time to comply with the amendments.

12. Pope & Company did not make reasonable efforts to comply with the best price obligation until January 2011 and did not update its written policies and procedures in this regard.

Protected marketplaces

13. During the relevant period, there were six protected marketplaces: TSX, TSXV, CNSX (includes Pure Trading), Omega ATS, Chi-X Canada and Alpha ATS (Alpha did not begin trading a full list of TSX securities until Feb 20, 2009 and a full list of TSXV securities until March 30, 2009).

14. A Participant has an obligation to execute against better priced orders on these protected marketplaces before executing at an inferior price on any marketplace or foreign organized regulatory market.

15. On April 17, 2009, IIROC issued a Rule Notice, Notice of Approval of UMIR 09-0107. This Rule Notice advised that the Rule effected on May 16, 2008 had been retroactively approved by the recognizing securities regulators.

Pope & Company not connected to all of the protected marketplaces

16. Between December 2008 and January 2011, Pope & Company was not connected to all of the six protected marketplaces. Pope & Company was only connected to the TSX and TSXV and was not connected to any other protected marketplace.

Lack of reasonable efforts

17. Pope & Company did not make reasonable efforts during the relevant period to obtain the “best price.” It did not use an acceptable order router. It did not provide the order to another Participant for entry on a marketplace. In short, Pope & Company did not make reasonable efforts to consider orders on any of the protected marketplaces other than the TSX or TSXV.

18. In September 2008, IIROC Trade Conduct Compliance (TCC) conducted a trade desk review of Pope & Company. The TCC review confirmed that Pope & Company did not have access to protected marketplaces other than the TSX and TSXV. Pope & Company was advised that it must make reasonable efforts to access protected marketplaces.

19. In February 2010, TCC issued its 2009 trade desk review report to Pope & Company. The firm’s compliance with the best price obligation was cited as a significant deficiency as it was a repeat deficiency. TCC reiterated that Pope & Company must make reasonable efforts to access all of the... protected marketplaces.

20. In March 2010, Pope & Company advised TCC that it was trying to determine the most cost effective way of complying with the best price obligation.

21. In September 2008 and in April 2010, Pope & Company requested pricing information from Pure Trading, Omega ATS, Chi-X Canada and Alpha ATS. The total costs of subscribing to the protected marketplaces were high for Pope & Company taking into account the size of its overall business and the volume of its trade execution business.

22. During the relevant period, Pope & Company considered providing its orders to another Participant for entry on a marketplace in order to comply with its best price obligation. However, this solution was deemed unfeasible given that it would result in a transaction cost to its clients that Pope & Company determined clients would consider unacceptable.

23. In response to an inquiry from IIROC Market Surveillance on June 28, 2010, Pope & Company advised IIROC that the firm was deciding whether a smart order router (SOR) would be set up.

24. On October 27, 2010, Pope & Company completed and signed a TSX Smart Order Router (TSX SOR) Subscriber Agreement. The TSX SOR would ensure that orders would be routed to the marketplace with the best price.

25. Pope & Company chose to subscribe to the TSX SOR Automated Jitney service, which provided that orders would be routed to the firm’s jitney provider if the best price was available on a marketplace where the firm was not subscribed.

27. Pope & Company was approved by NBF for jitney service on February 10, 2011.

28. During the time period December 2008 to January 2011, Pope & Company generated trade through alerts. A trade through alert occurs when a possible trade through violation has been identified by IIROC Market Surveillance Staff.

29. Pope & Company was contacted on several occasions by IIROC Market Surveillance advising them of trade through alerts.

30. During the relevant period, the percentage of trade through alerts generated by Pope & Company as a result of its failure to comply with the best price obligation was small relative to its overall trading volume.

Failure to have adequate policies and procedures in place

31. During the relevant period, Pope & Company failed to adopt policies and procedures to ensure compliance with its “best price” obligation.

32. Pope & Company did not set out the steps or process to be followed by it that would constitute the “reasonable efforts” to ensure that orders received the best price when executed on a marketplace.

33. During the relevant period, Pope & Company did not monitor or review its order flow for compliance with the best price obligation.

III. CONCLUSION

34. Effective February 1, 2011, UMIR 5.2 and Policy 5.2 were repealed, when changes to National Instrument 23-101 – Trading Rules regarding trade-through protection were implemented by the Canadian Securities Administrators.

35. Pope & Company has no history of regulatory violations and cooperated with IIROC Staff throughout the investigation.
36. During the relevant period, Pope & Company had an obligation to comply with UMIR 5.2 and UMIR 7.1 and did not make reasonable efforts to do so.
