IIROC Proficiency Committee – Call for Applications

Executive Summary

IIROC seeks applications for membership on the Proficiency Committee. This committee replaced the Education and Proficiency Committee and Continuing Education Subcommittee in 2016.

Committee Mandate

The mandate of the Committee is to advise IIROC on matters relating to proficiency policy and operations. This includes matters relating to licensing standards and continuing education.

The Committee is an important source of practical industry expertise and input.

Work of the Committee

The Committee supports IIROC's proficiency work through the following activities:

- advising on proficiency policy and operations
- assisting in IIROC's development of competency standards
- reviewing course material and course proposals, including proposals relating to content, instructional design, etc.

IIROC strikes ad hoc working groups or committees to conduct some of these activities.

Committee Membership

The Committee is comprised of up to fifteen members.

Committee membership draws from the expertise of Dealer Member and non-Dealer Member personnel with experience in the following areas:

- compliance and legal
- education and training
- retail
- institutional
- options
- futures and futures contract
- proficiency matters

This is a pan-Canadian committee. Membership reflects the different sizes and types of Dealer Members and different regions of Canada.

Why get involved?

IIROC has high proficiency standards and a robust proficiency regime.

Proficiency is a strategic priority for IIROC. High proficiency standards play a key role in investor protection and the integrity and efficiency of capital markets.

Our collaboration ensures continuation of the highest levels of proficiency, professionalism and ethics on the IIROC platform.

Conduct and Conflicts

Committee members may not consult or work for organizations that provide IIROC proficiency courses, including the Canadian Securities Institute (CSI). Applications must disclose any previous relationships with CSI or any other financial services education provider.

Committee members are subject to a Code of Conduct and, given the nature of the work of the Committee, a confidentiality agreement.

Application and Appointment Process

Committee members are appointed by the President and CEO of IIROC, or his/her designate, on the advice of IIROC Proficiency Staff.

Members are appointed for a term of two years. The term may be renewed at the discretion of the President and CEO of IIROC or his/her designate.

We will consider all applications that we receive by February 1, 2019.
