IN THE MATTER OF Jean-Claude Lemire – Adjournment

May 7, 2018 (Montréal, Québec) — A settlement hearing was originally scheduled to take place before a Hearing Panel of the Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada (IIROC) in the matter of Jean-Claude Lemire on May 25, 2018. At the request of the respondent, the settlement hearing was adjourned, on a peremptory basis, to June 1, 2018.

The Settlement Agreement addresses allegations that Mr. Lemire failed to use due diligence to ensure that three trades executed in two clients' accounts were within the bounds of good business practice and failed to disclose to the clients the deferred sales charges associated with these trades. It is also alleged that Mr. Lemire executed six discretionary trades in the accounts of those two clients.

The hearing is not open to the public, but will become open in the event that the panel accepts the agreement. If the agreement is accepted, the Panel's decision and the Settlement Agreement will be made available at www.iiroc.ca.

Documents related to ongoing IIROC enforcement proceedings – including Reasons and Decisions of Hearing Panels – are posted on the IIROC website as they become available. Click here to search and access all IIROC enforcement documents.
