

M. Marianne Harris	Dealer	Ms. Harris is a Managing Director and President, Corporate and Investment Banking, Merrill Lynch Canada, Inc. In this role she has direct client responsibility in the banking, insurance and asset management sectors as well as telecom and media in Canada. Over the past twenty-seven years Ms. Harris has worked on a wide range of assignments including mergers and acquisitions, takeover defense, unsolicited offers, demutualizations, initial public offerings, secondary equity offerings, convertible offerings, private placements, subordinated and senior debt offerings and a number of other advisory and corporate finance mandates. Since joining Merrill Lynch in 2000, some of the transactions on which Ms. Harris has been an advisor are: the purchase by Great-West Lifeco of Canada Life, the purchase by Sun Life of Clarica, the sale of Mackenzie Financial Corporation to Investors Group, as well as being involved in Merrill's leadership in innovative financings. Prior to her current position, Marianne was Head of the Financial Institutions Group, Americas 2004-2006 and co-Head 2003-2004 and Managing Director and Head of Financial Institutions Group, Canada. Before joining Merrill Lynch, Ms. Harris was Head of the Financial Institutions Group at RBC Capital Markets. Ms. Harris brings extensive corporate and investment banking experience gained from over 27 years of advisory experience in the U.S. and Canada and her leadership roles at Merrill Lynch. Ms. Harris is a member of the Princess Margaret Hospital Foundation Board, the Dean's Advisory Council for the Schulich School of Business and the Advisory Council for The Hennick Centre for Business and Law. She has an M.B.A. from Schulich School of Business, a J.D. from Osgoode Hall and a B.Sc. (Honours) from Queens University.
---------------------------	---------------	--