

Michelle Khalili	Dealer	Ms. Khalili is a Managing Director of CIBC’s Equity Capital Markets group, part of the wholesale banking arm of CIBC. Ms. Khalili brings over 15 years of experience in Canadian capital markets and has extensive experience in equity markets, corporate finance and investment banking. She joined CIBC in April 2000 as a member of the Equity Capital Markets group. Ms. Khalili has responsibility for the firm’s origination and execution of equity financing transactions for income trust and corporate issuers in a number of different industries. Prior to joining CIBC, she was with the Investment Banking group at another investment dealer, working on financings, advisory mandates and merger and acquisition transactions. In addition, Ms. Khalili worked in the Corporate Finance and Audit groups of PricewaterhouseCoopers. Ms. Khalili holds a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Toronto as well as Chartered Accountant and Chartered Financial Analyst designations. She has been involved in a number of community initiatives, including the Canadian Women’s Foundation Girls Growth Fund, the Royal Ontario Museum – Fact or Fiction Committee and the CIBC Canadian Breast Cancer Foundation Run for the Cure. Ms. Khalili is on the Human Resources and Pension Committee.
------------------	--------	---