IDA Withdraws Allegations Against Ernest En Lin

The Investment Dealers Association of Canada announced today the withdrawal of all allegations of regulatory contravention as described in the Notice to Public dated January 24, 2007, for which Ernest En Lin (a Registered Options Representative) may have been disciplined by the Association. Staff decision was based upon a reassessment of the case.

On May 7, 2007, the Hearing Panel heard and accepted the Association's request to withdraw the allegations against Ernest En Lin.
