Continuing Education Training Event

The Continuing Education ("CE") Subcommittee of the Association's Education and Proficiency Committee will present a one day training seminar for the CE Administrators of IDA Members.

The event, which is scheduled for Friday, October 26, 2007, will provide an overview of various topics of interest to CE administrators, such

- Overview of the CE program
- CE Online System
- Record keeping requirements
- Hardship Extensions
- Assessing courses for CE credits
- Advisor Communication

Due to space limitations, this training seminar will be restricted to those individuals at IDA members who have an involvement in administering the member firm's CE program. Invitations and further details will be issued to those individuals at IDA member firms identified as the CE contact(s).
