Consolidated Short Position Report for the Reporting Period Ending November 30, 2018

We expected to publish the consolidated short position report (CSPR) for the reporting period ending November 30, 2018 on our website today. We identified errors in the data provided by one submitter resulting in significant issues with the content of the report. We are currently working with this submitter to resolve the issue. Once resolved, we will post the CSPR on our website.
