IN THE MATTER OF Alfred Drose – Adjournment

February 19, 2021 (Toronto, Ontario) – A hearing was originally scheduled before a Hearing Panel of the Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada (IIROC) in the matter of Alfred Drose on February 16, 2021. The hearing was adjourned to a date to be determined.

The hearing concerns allegations that:

- (a) Between February 2014 and June 2015, Mr. Drose engaged in excessive trading in a client's accounts, which was not within the bounds of good business practice and was unsuitable for the client, contrary to Dealer Member Rules 1300.1 (o), 1300.1(q), and 1300.1(s).
- (b) Between February 2014 and June 2015, Mr. Drose failed to use due diligence to learn and remain informed of the essential facts relative to his client, contrary to Dealer Member Rule 1300.1(a); and
- (c) In or about February 2014, Mr. Drose made a false attestation on an account document, contrary to Consolidated Rule 1400.

IIROC formally initiated the investigation into Mr. Drose's conduct in December 2019. The alleged violations occurred while he was a Registered Representative with the Toronto branch of Chippingham Financial Group, formerly an IIROC-regulated firm. Mr. Drose is no longer a registrant with an IIROC-regulated firm.

The hearing is open to the public, unless the Panel orders otherwise. Members of the public who would like to attend the hearing should contact IIROC's National Hearing Coordinator at NHC1@iiroc.ca to obtain the details. The decision of the Hearing Panel will be made available at www.iiroc.ca.

IIROC is the pan-Canadian self-regulatory organization that oversees all investment dealers and their trading activity in Canada’s debt and equity markets. IIROC sets high quality regulatory and investment industry standards, protects investors and strengthens market integrity while supporting healthy Canadian capital markets. IIROC carries out its regulatory responsibilities through setting and enforcing rules regarding the proficiency, business and financial conduct of 175 Canadian investment dealer firms of varying sizes and business models, and their more than 30,000 registered employees. IIROC also sets and enforces market integrity rules regarding trading activity on Canadian debt and equity marketplaces.

IIROC investigates possible misconduct by its member firms and/or individual registrants. It can bring disciplinary proceedings which may result in penalties including fines, suspensions, permanent bars, expulsion from membership, or termination of rights and privileges for individuals and firms.

All information about disciplinary proceedings relating to current and former member firms is available in the Enforcement section of the IIROC website. Background information regarding the qualifications and disciplinary history, if any, of advisors currently employed by IIROC-regulated firms is available free of charge through the IIROC AdvisorReport service. Information on how to make investment dealer, advisor or marketplace-related complaints is available by calling 1 877 442-4322.
