(unofficial)

1.1 For the purpose of the definition "politically exposed foreign person" in subsection 9.3(3) of the Act, the prescribed family members of a politically exposed foreign person are

- (a) the person's spouse or common-law partner;
- (b) a child of the person;
- (c) the person's mother or father;
- (d) the mother or father of the person's spouse or common-law partner; and
- (e) a child of the person's mother or father.

NON-APPLICATION OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS

1.2 Sections 11.1, 12, 13, 14, 14.1, 15.1, 53.1, 54, 54.1 and 54.2 do not apply in respect of the credit card acquiring activities of a financial entity.

FOREIGN CURRENCY

2. Where a transaction is carried out by a person or entity in a foreign currency, the amount of the transaction shall, for the purposes of these Regulations, be converted into Canadian dollars based on

- (a) the official conversion rate of the Bank of Canada for that currency as published in the Bank of Canada's Daily Memorandum of Exchange Rates that is in effect at the time of the transaction; or
- (b) if no official conversion rate is set out in that publication for that currency, the conversion rate that the person or entity would use for that currency in the normal course of business at the time of the transaction.

SINGLE TRANSACTIONS

3. (1) In these Regulations, two or more cash transactions or electronic funds transfers of less than $10,000 each that are made within 24 consecutive hours and that total $10,000 or more are considered to be a single transaction of $10,000 or more if

- (a) where a person is required to keep a large cash transaction record or to report an electronic funds transfer in accordance with these Regulations, the person knows that the transactions or transfers are conducted by, or on behalf of, the same person or entity; and

Appendix C-2

The Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Regulations effective June 23, 2008
(unofficial)

(b) where an entity is required to keep a large cash transaction record or to report an electronic funds transfer in accordance with these Regulations, an employee or a senior officer of the entity knows that the transactions or transfers are conducted by, or on behalf of, the same person or entity.

(2) For greater certainty, subsection (1) does not apply in respect of an electronic funds transfer sent to two or more beneficiaries where the transfer is requested by

(a) a public body or a corporation referred to in paragraph 62(2)(b) [amended to 62(2)(m) effective June 23, 2008]; or

(b) an administrator of a pension fund that is regulated by or under an Act of Parliament or of the legislature of a province.

SENDING REPORTS

4. (1) A report that is required to be made to the Centre shall be sent electronically in accordance with guidelines for report submissions that are prepared by the Centre, if the sender has the technical capabilities to do so.

(2) The report shall be sent in paper format, in accordance with guidelines for report submissions that are prepared by the Centre, if the sender does not have the technical capabilities to send the report electronically.

REPORTING TIME LIMITS

5. (1) A report that is required to be made under these Regulations in respect of an electronic funds transfer shall be sent to the Centre not later than five working days after the day of the transfer.

(2) A report in respect of a transaction for which a large cash transaction record must be kept and retained under these Regulations shall be sent to the Centre

(a) within 30 days after the transaction, where the transaction occurs on the day on which this section comes into force or within 12 months after that day; or

(b) in any other case, within 15 days after the transaction.

TRANSACTIONS CONDUCTED BY EMPLOYEES OR AGENTS

6. (1) Where a person who is subject to the requirements of these Regulations is an employee of a person or entity referred to in any of paragraphs 5(a) to (l) of the Act, it is the employer rather than the employee who is responsible for meeting those requirements.

(2) Where a person or entity who is subject to the requirements of these Regulations, other than a life insurance broker or agent, is an agent of or is authorized to act on behalf of another person or entity referred to in any of paragraphs 5(a) to (l) of the Act, it is that other person or entity rather than the agent or the authorized person or entity, as the case may be, that is responsible for meeting those requirements.

7. For the purposes of these Regulations, a person acting on behalf of their employer is considered to be acting on behalf of a third party except when the person is depositing cash into the employer's business account.

THIRD PARTY DETERMINATION

8. (1) Every person or entity that is required to keep a large cash transaction record under these Regulations shall take reasonable measures to determine whether the individual who in fact gives the cash in respect of which the record is kept is acting on behalf of a third party.

(2) Where the person or entity determines that the individual is acting on behalf of a third party, the person or entity shall keep a record that sets out

(a) the third party's name, address and date of birth and the nature of the principal business or occupation of the third party, if the third party is an individual;

(b) if the third party is an entity, the third party's name and address and the nature of the principal business of the third party, and, if the entity is a corporation, the entity's incorporation number and its place of issue; and

(c) the nature of the relationship between the third party and the individual who gives the cash.

(3) Where the person or entity is not able to determine whether the individual is acting on behalf of a third party but there are reasonable grounds to suspect that the individual is doing so, the person or entity shall keep a record that

(a) indicates whether, according to the individual, the transaction is being conducted on behalf of a third party; and

(b) describes the reasonable grounds to suspect that the individual is acting on behalf of a third party.

9. (1) Subject to subsections (4) and 4.1, every person or entity that is required to keep a signature card or an account operating agreement in respect of an account under these Regulations shall, at the time that the account is opened, take reasonable measures to determine whether the account is to be used by or on behalf of a third party.

Appendix C-2

The Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Regulations effective June 23, 2008
(unofficial)

(2) Subject to subsections (5) and (6), where the person or entity determines that the account is to be used by or on behalf of a third party, the person or entity shall keep a record that sets out

(a) the third party's name, address and date of birth and the nature of the principal business or occupation of the third party, if the third party is an individual;

(b) if the third party is an entity, the third party's name and address and the nature of the principal business of the third party, and, if the entity is a corporation, the entity's incorporation number and its place of issue; and

(c) the nature of the relationship between the third party and the account holder.

(3) Where the person or entity is not able to determine if the account is to be used by or on behalf of a third party but there are reasonable grounds to suspect that it will be so used, the person or entity shall keep a record that

(a) indicates whether, according to the individual who is authorized to act in respect of the account, the account is to be used by or on behalf of a third party; and

(b) describes the reasonable grounds to suspect that the individual is acting on behalf of a third party.

(4) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of an account where the account holder is a financial entity or a securities dealer that is engaged in the business of dealing in securities in Canada.

(4.1) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of an account that is opened by a financial entity for use in relation to a credit card acquiring business.

(5) Subsection (2) does not apply where a securities dealer is required to keep an account operating agreement in respect of an account of a person or entity that is engaged in the business of dealing in securities only outside of Canada and where

(a) the account is in a country that is a member of the Financial Action Task Force;

(b) the account is in a country that is not a member of the Task Force referred to in paragraph (a) but has implemented the recommendations of the Task Force relating to customer identification and, at the time that the account is opened, the securities dealer has obtained written assurance from the entity where the account is located that the country has implemented those recommendations; or

(c) the account is in a country that is not a member of the Task Force referred to in paragraph (a) and has not implemented the recommendations of the Task Force relating to customer identification but, at the time that the account is opened, the securities dealer has ascertained the identity of all third parties relating to the account as described in paragraph 64(1).

(6) Subsection (2) does not apply where

(a) the account is opened by a legal counsel, an accountant or a real estate broker or sales representative; and

(b) the person or entity has reasonable grounds to believe that the account is to be used only for clients of the legal counsel, accountant or real estate broker or sales representative, as the case may be.

10. (1) Every person or entity that is required to keep a client information record under these Regulations in respect of a client shall, at the time that the client information record is created, take reasonable measures to determine whether the client is acting on behalf of a third party.

(2) Where the person or entity determines that the client is acting on behalf of a third party, the person or entity shall keep a record that sets out

(a) the third party's name, address and date of birth and the nature of the principal business or occupation of the third party, if the third party is an individual;

(b) if the third party is a entity, the third party's name and address and the nature of the principal business of the third party, and, if the entity is a corporation, the entity's incorporation number and its place of issue; and

(c) the relationship between the third party and the client.

(3) Where the person or entity is not able to determine that the client in respect of whom the client information record is kept is acting on behalf of a third party but there are reasonable grounds to suspect that the client is so acting, the person or entity shall keep a record that

(a) indicates whether, according to the client, the transaction is being conducted on behalf of a third party; and

(b) describes the reasonable grounds to suspect that the client is acting on behalf of a third party.

INFORMATION ON BENEFICIARIES

11. A trust company that is required to keep a record in respect of an inter vivos trust in accordance with these Regulations shall keep a record that sets out the name, address and date of birth and the nature of the principal business and occupation, of each of the beneficiaries that are known at the time that the trust company becomes a trustee for the trust.

INFORMATION ON DIRECTORS OR PARTNERS OF ON PERSONS WHO OWN OR CONTROL 25%
OR MORE OF A CORPORATION OR OTHER ENTITY

11.1 (1) Every financial entity or securities dealer that is required to confirm the existence of an entity in accordance with these Regulations when it opens an account in respect of that entity, every life insurance company or life insurance broker or agent that is required to confirm the existence of an entity in accordance with these Regulations and every money services business that is required to confirm the existence of an entity in accordance with these Regulations when it enters into an ongoing electronic funds transfer, fund remittance or foreign exchange service agreement with that entity, or a service agreement for the issuance or redemption of money orders, traveller's cheques or other similar negotiable instruments, shall, at the time the existence of the entity is confirmed, take reasonable measures to obtain and, if obtained, keep a record of

(a) where the confirmation is in respect of a corporation, the name and occupation of all directors of the corporation and the name, address and occupation of all persons who own or control, directly or indirectly, 25 per cent or more of the shares of the corporation; and

(b) where the confirmation is in respect of an entity other than a corporation, the name, address and occupation of all persons who own or control, directly or indirectly, 25 per cent or more of the entity.

(2) Where the person or entity is not able to obtain the information referred to in subsection (1), the person or entity shall keep a record that indicates the reason why the information could not be obtained.

(3) Where the entity the existence of which is being confirmed by a person or entity under subsection (1) is a not-for-profit organization, the person or entity shall determine, and keep a record that sets out, whether that entity is

(a) a charity registered with the Canada Revenue Agency under the Income Tax Act; or

(b) an organization, other than one referred to in paragraph (a), that solicits charitable financial donations from the public.

REPORTING OF FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS AND RECORD-KEEPING

FINANCIAL ENTITIES

12. (1) Subject to section 50 and subsection 52(1), every financial entity shall report the following transactions and information to the Centre:

(a) the receipt from a client of an amount in cash of $10,000 or more in the course of a single transaction, together with the information referred to in Schedule 1, unless the cash is received from another financial entity or a public body;

(b) the sending out of Canada, at the request of a client, of an electronic funds transfer of $10,000 or more in the course of a single transaction, together with the information referred to in Schedule 2 or 5, as the case may be; and

(c) the receipt from outside Canada of an electronic funds transfer, sent at the request of a client, of $10,000 or more in the course of a single transaction, together with the information referred to in Schedule 3 or 6, as the case may be.

(2) For greater certainty, paragraph (1)(b) does not apply when the financial entity sends an electronic funds transfer to a person or entity in Canada, even if the final recipient is outside Canada.

(3) Paragraph (1)(b) applies in respect of a financial entity that orders a person or entity to which subsection (1), 28(1) or 40(1) applies to send an electronic funds transfer out of Canada, at the request of a client, unless it provides that person or entity with the name and address of that client.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), for greater certainty, paragraph (1)(c) does not apply when the financial entity receives an electronic funds transfer from a person or entity in Canada, even if the initial sender is outside Canada.

(5) Paragraph (1)(c) applies in respect of a financial entity that receives an electronic funds transfer for a beneficiary in Canada from a person or entity to which subsection (1), 28(1) or 40(1) applies where the initial sender is outside Canada, unless the electronic funds transfer contains the name and address of that beneficiary.

13. Subject to subsection 52(2), every financial entity shall keep a large cash transaction record in respect of every amount in cash of $10,000 or more that is received from a client in the course of a single transaction, unless the cash is received from another financial entity or a public body.

14. Subject to subsection 62(2), every financial entity shall keep the following records in respect of an account other than a credit card account:

(a) where it opens an account, a signature card in respect of each account holder for that account;

Appendix C-2

The Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Regulations effective June 23, 2008
(unofficial)

(b) where it opens an account in respect of a corporation, a copy of the part of official corporate records that contains any provision relating to the power to bind the corporation in respect of the account;

(c) where it opens an account in the name of a client that is a person or an entity other than a corporation, a record of the name and address of the client and:

(i) if the client is a person, their date of birth and the nature of their principal business or their occupation, as applicable, and

(ii) if the client is an entity other than a corporation, the nature of their principal business;

(c.1) in respect of every account that it opens, a record that sets out the intended use of the account;

(d) every account operating agreement that it creates in the normal course of business;

(e) a deposit slip in respect of every deposit that is made to an account;

(f) every debit and credit memo that it creates or receives in the normal course of business in respect of an account, except debit memos that relate to another account at the same branch of the financial entity that created the debit memo;

(g) a copy of every account statement that it sends to a client, if the information in the statement is not readily obtainable from other records that are kept and retained by it under these Regulations;

(h) every cleared cheque that is drawn on, and a copy of every cleared cheque that is deposited to, an account, unless

(i) the account on which the cheque is drawn and the account to which the cheque is deposited are at the same branch of the financial entity, or

(ii) the following conditions are met, namely,

(A) an image of the cheque has been recorded on microfilm or on an electronic medium,

(B) an image of the cheque can be readily reproduced from the microfilm or electronic medium,

(C) it is possible to readily ascertain where the image of any particular cheque is recorded, and

Appendix C-2

The Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Regulations effective June 23, 2008
(unofficial)

(D) the microfilm or electronic medium is retained for a period of at least five years;

(i) every client credit file that it creates in the normal course of business;

(j) a transaction ticket in respect of every foreign currency exchange transaction

(k) where it receives an amount of $3,000 or more from a person or from an entity other than a financial entity in consideration of the issuance of traveller's cheques, money orders or similar negotiable instruments, a record of the amount received, the date it was received, the name and address of the person who in fact gave the amount and whether the amount received was in cash, cheques, traveller's cheques, money orders or other similar negotiable instruments;

(l) where, in a single transaction, it redeems one money order of $3,000 or more, or two or more money orders that, taken together, add up to a total of $3,000 or more, a record of the total amount of the money order or orders, the date on which the money order or orders were redeemed, the name and address of the person who made the request for the money order or orders to be redeemed and the name of the issuer of each money order;

(m) where, at the request of a client, it sends an electronic funds transfer, as prescribed by subsection 66.1(2), in an amount of $1,000 or more, a record of

(i) the name, address and telephone number of the client initiating the transaction and the nature of their principal business or their occupation,

(ii) if the client initiating the transaction is a person, their date of birth,

(iii) the relevant account number, if any, and the reference number, if any, of the transaction and the date of the transaction,

(iv) the name or account number of the person or entity to whom the electronic funds transfer is sent, and

(v) the amount and currency of the transaction;

(n) where it has obtained approval under paragraph 67.1(b) to keep the account of a person that has been determined to be a politically exposed foreign person open, a record of

(i) the office or position in respect of which the person was determined to be a politically exposed foreign person,

Appendix C-2

The Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Regulations effective June 23, 2008
(unofficial)

- (ii) the source, if known, of the funds that are or are expected to be deposited in the account,
 - (iii) the date of the determination that the person was a politically exposed foreign person,
 - (iv) the name of the member of senior management who gave the approval to keep the account open, and
 - (v) the date of that approval; and
- (o) where a transaction has been reviewed under subsection 67.2(2), a record of
- (i) the office or position in respect of which the person initiating the transaction or the beneficiary of the transaction was determined to be a politically exposed foreign person,
 - (ii) the source, if known, of the funds that have been used for the transaction,
 - (iii) the date of the determination that the person referred to in subparagraph (i) was a politically exposed foreign person,
 - (iv) the name of the member of senior management who reviewed the transaction, and
 - (v) the date of that review.

14.1 Subject to subsection 62(2), every financial entity shall, in respect of every credit card account that it opens, keep a credit card account record that includes

- (a) where the account is opened in the name of a client that is a person or an entity other than a corporation, the name and address of the client and
 - (i) if the client is a person, their date of birth and the nature of their principal business or their occupation, as applicable, and
 - (ii) if the client is an entity other than a corporation, the nature of their principal business;
- (b) where the account is opened in the name of a client that is a corporation, a copy of the part of official corporate records that contains any provision relating to the power to bind the corporation in respect of the account;
- (c) the name, address and telephone number of every holder of a credit card for the account;

Appendix C-2

The Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Regulations effective June 23, 2008
(unofficial)

(d) the date of birth of every holder of a credit card for the account, if that information is known after reasonable measures have been taken by the financial entity to obtain it;

(e) every credit card application that the financial entity receives from the client in the normal course of business;

(f) a copy of every credit card statement that the financial entity sends to the client, if the information in the statement is not readily obtainable from other records that are kept and retained by it under these Regulations; and

(g) where the financial entity has obtained approval under paragraph 67.1(b) to keep the account of a person that has been determined to be a politically exposed foreign person open

(i) the office or position in respect of which the person was determined to be a politically exposed foreign person,

(ii) the source, if known, of the funds that are or are expected to be deposited in the account,

(iii) the date of the determination that the person was a politically exposed foreign person,

(iv) the name of the member of senior management who gave the approval to keep the account open, and

(v) the date of that approval.

15. (1) Every trust company shall, in addition to the records referred to in sections 13 and 14, keep the following records in respect of a trust for which it is trustee:

(a) a copy of the trust deed;

(b) a record of the settlor's name, address and date of birth and the nature of the principal business or occupation of the settlor; and

(c) where the trust is an institutional trust and the settlor is a corporation, a copy of the part of official corporate records that contains any provision relating to the power to bind the settlor in respect of the trust.

(2) In this section, "institutional trust" means a trust that is established by a corporation, partnership or other entity for a particular business purpose and includes pension plan trusts, pension master trusts, supplemental pension plan trusts, mutual fund trusts, pooled fund trusts, registered retirement savings plan trusts, registered retirement income fund trusts, registered education savings plan trusts, group registered retirement savings plan trusts, deferred profit sharing plan trusts, employee profit sharing plan trusts, retirement compensation arrangement trusts, employee savings plan trusts, health and welfare trusts, unemployment benefit plan trusts, foreign insurance company trusts, foreign reinsurance trusts, reinsurance trusts, real estate investment trusts, environmental trusts and trusts established in respect of endowments, foundations and registered charities.

15.1 (1) For the purposes of subsections 9.4(1) and (3) of the Act, the prescribed foreign entity is a foreign financial institution.

(2) Every financial entity shall, when it enters into a correspondent banking relationship, keep a record in respect of the foreign financial institution containing the following information and documents:

- (a) the name and address of the foreign financial institution;
- (b) the names of the directors of the foreign financial institution;
- (c) the primary business line of the foreign financial institution;
- (d) a copy of the most recent annual report or audited financial statement of the foreign financial institution;
- (e) a copy of the foreign financial institution's banking licence, banking charter, authorization or certification to operate from the relevant regulatory agency or certificate of corporate status or a copy of another similar document;
- (f) a copy of the correspondent banking agreement or arrangement, or product agreements, defining the respective responsibilities of each entity;
- (g) the anticipated correspondent banking account activity of the foreign financial institution, including the products or services to be used;
- (h) a statement from the foreign financial institution that it does not have, directly or indirectly, correspondent banking relationships with shell banks; and
- (i) a statement from the foreign financial institution that it is in compliance with anti-money laundering and anti-terrorist financing legislation in its own jurisdiction.

(3) The financial entity shall take reasonable measures to ascertain whether the foreign financial institution has in place anti-money laundering and anti-terrorist financing policies and procedures, including procedures for approval for the opening of new accounts and, if not, shall, for the purpose of detecting any transactions that are required to be reported to the Centre under section 7 of the Act, take reasonable measures to conduct ongoing monitoring of all transactions conducted in the context of the correspondent banking relationship.

(4) For greater certainty, section 14 does not apply in respect of an account opened for a foreign financial institution in the context of a correspondent banking relationship.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES AND LIFE INSURANCE BROKERS OR AGENTS

16. Part 1 of the Act applies to life insurance brokers or agents.

17. Subject to section 20.2 and subsection 52(1), every life insurance company or life insurance broker or agent who receives from a client an amount in cash of $10,000 or more in the course of a single transaction shall report the transaction to the Centre, together with the information referred to in Schedule 1, except

(a) if the amount is received from a financial entity or a public body; or

(b) in respect of transactions referred to in subsection 62(2).

18. Subject to subsection 20.2 and 52(2), every life insurance company or life insurance broker or agent shall keep a large cash transaction record in respect of every amount in cash of $10,000 or more that is received from a client in the course of a single transaction, unless

(a) the cash is received from a financial entity or a public body; or

(b) the transaction is a transaction referred to in subsection 62(2).

19. (1) Subject to section 20.2 and subsection 62.2, every life insurance company or life insurance broker or agent shall keep a client information record for every purchase from the company, broker or agent of an immediate or deferred annuity or of a life insurance policy for which the client may pay $10,000 or more over the duration of the annuity or policy, irrespective of the means of payment.

(2) Subject to section 20.2 and subsection 62(2), in the case of a life insurance policy that is a group life insurance policy or in the case of a group annuity, the client information record shall be kept in respect of the applicant for the policy or annuity.

20. Subject to section 20.2, every life insurance company or life insurance broker or agent who keeps a client information record in respect of a corporation in accordance with subsection 19(1) shall also keep a copy of the part of official corporate records that contains any provision relating to the power to bind the corporation in respect of the transactions with the life insurance company or life insurance broker or agent, if the copy of that part is obtained in the normal course of business.

(2) For greater certainty, paragraph (1)(b) does not apply when the money services business sends an electronic funds transfer to a person or an entity in Canada, even if the final recipient is outside Canada.

(3) Paragraph (1)(b) applies in respect of a money services business that orders a person or entity to which subsection (1), 12(1) or 40(1) applies, to send out of Canada an electronic funds transfer made at the request of a client, unless it provides that person or entity with the name and address of that client.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), for greater certainty, paragraph (1)(c) does not apply when the money services business receives an electronic funds transfer from a person or an entity in Canada, even if the initial sender is outside Canada.

(5) Paragraph (1)(c) applies in respect of a money services business that receives an electronic funds transfer for a beneficiary in Canada from a person or entity to which subsection (1), 12(1) or 40(1) applies where the initial sender is outside Canada, unless the electronic funds transfer contains the name and address of that beneficiary.

29. Subject to subsection 52(2), every money services business shall keep a large cash transaction record in respect of every amount in cash of $10,000 or more that is received from a client in the course of a single transaction, unless the cash is received from a financial entity or a public body.

30. Every money services business shall keep the following records in respect of any of the activities referred to in paragraph 5(h) of the Act:

(a) every client credit file that it creates in the normal course of business;

(a.1) every internal memorandum that it receives or creates in the normal course of business and that concerns services provided to its clients; (b) where a client information record is in respect of a client that is a corporation, a copy of the part of official corporate records that contains any provision relating to the power to bind the corporation in respect of transactions with the money services business, if the copy of that part is obtained in the normal course of business;

(c) where it receives an amount of $3,000 or more from a person or from an entity other than a financial entity in consideration of the issuance of traveller's cheques, money orders or other similar negotiable instruments, a record of the amount received, the date it was received, the name, address and date of birth of the person who in fact gave the amount and whether the amount received was in cash, cheques, traveller's cheques, money orders or other similar negotiable instruments;

(d) where money orders of $3,000 or more are cashed, a record of the name, address and date of birth of the person cashing the money orders and the name of the issuer of the money orders;

The Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Regulations effective June 23, 2008
(unofficial)

- (e) where $1,000 or more is remitted or transmitted, a record of
 - (i) the name, address and telephone number of the client who initiated the transaction and the nature of their principal business or occupation,
 - (ii) if the client initiating the transaction is a person, their date of birth,
 - (iii) the reference number and date of the transaction,
 - (iv) the name of the person or entity to whom the amount is remitted or transmitted, and
 - (v) the amount and currency of the transaction; and
- (f) a transaction ticket in respect of every foreign currency exchange transaction.

31. Every money services business shall keep a record of the following information when a transaction is reviewed under subsection 67.2(2):

- (a) the office or position in respect of which the person initiating the transaction or the beneficiary of the transaction is determined to be a politically exposed foreign person;
- (b) the source, if known, of the funds that have been used for the transaction;
- (c) the date of the determination that the person referred to in paragraph (a) is a politically exposed foreign person;
- (d) the name of the member of senior management who reviewed the transaction; and
- (e) the date the transaction was reviewed.

32. Every money services business that enters into an ongoing electronic funds transfer, funds remittance or foreign exchange service agreement with an entity, or a service agreement for the issuance or redemption of money orders, traveller's cheques or other negotiable instruments, shall keep a record of the name, address, date of birth and occupation of every person who has signed the agreement on behalf of the entity, a client information record with respect to the entity and a list containing the name, address and date of birth of every employee authorized to order transactions under the agreement.

- (d) where money orders of $3,000 or more are cashed, a record of the name, address and date of birth of the person cashing the money orders and the name of the issuer of the money orders.

Appendix C-2

The Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Regulations effective June 23, 2008
(unofficial)

EXCEPTIONS

50. (1) A financial entity is not required to report transactions under paragraph 12(1)(a) in respect of a business of a client, if the following conditions are met:

(a) subject to subsection (2), the client is a corporation that carries on that business as an establishment described in sector 22, 44 (excluding codes 4411, 4412 and 44831) or 45 (excluding code 45392), or code 481, 482, 485 (excluding code 4853), 51322, 51331, 61121 or 61131 of the North American Industry Classification System as that sector or code read on January 31, 2003;

(b) the client has had

(i) for the entire preceding 24-month period, an account in respect of that business with that financial entity, or

(ii) an account in respect of that business with a financial entity other than the one referred to in subparagraph (i), for a continuous period of 24 months ending immediately before the client opened an account with that financial entity;

(c) the financial entity has records that indicate that the client has deposited $10,000 or more in cash into that account on an average of at least twice in every week for the preceding 12 months;

(d) the cash deposits made by the client are consistent with its usual practice in respect of the business;

(e) the financial entity has taken reasonable measures to determine the source of the cash for those deposits; and

(f) subject to subsection 52(1), the financial entity has provided to the Centre the information set out in Schedule 4.

(2) Paragraph (1)(a) does not apply to a corporation that carries on a business related to pawnbroking or a corporation whose principal business is the sale of vehicles, vessels, farm machinery, aircraft, mobile homes, jewellery, precious gems or metals, antiquities or art.

(3) A financial entity that, in accordance with subsection (1), chooses not to report transactions of more than $10,000 shall report to the Centre any change in the following information, within 15 days after the change is made:

(a) the name and address of the client;

(b) the nature of the client's business; and

(c) the client's incorporation number.

(4) A financial entity that, in accordance with subsection (1), chooses not to report transactions of more than $10,000 shall, at least once every 12 months,

(a) verify that the conditions referred to in subsection (1) are still met in respect of each client; and

(b) send a report to the Centre setting out the name and address of each client, together with the name of a senior officer of the financial entity who has confirmed that the conditions referred to in subsection (1) are still being met in respect of each client.

51. Where a person or entity maintains a list of clients for the purposes of subsection 9(3) of the Act, the list must contain the name and address of each client and be kept in paper form or in a form referred to in section 68.

52. (1) The requirement to report information set out in Schedules 1 to 6 does not apply to a person or entity in respect of information set out in an item of any of those Schedules that is not marked with an asterisk if, after taking reasonable measures to do so, the person or entity is unable to obtain the information.

(2) The requirement that a person or entity keep or retain a record or include information in it does not apply if the information that must be found in the record is readily obtainable from other records that the person or entity is required to keep or retain under these Regulations.

(3) Despite subsection (1), for the application of section 3(1), the requirement to report information set out in Schedules 1 to 3, 5 and 6 does not apply to a person or entity in respect of information set out in an item of any of those Schedules that is marked with an asterisk if, after taking reasonable measures to do so, the person or entity is unable to obtain the information.

(4) For greater certainty, Schedules 2 and 3 apply only to SWIFT members sending or receiving SWIFT messages.

ASCERTAINING IDENTITY

PERSONS OR ENTITIES REQUIRED TO KEEP LARGE CASH TRANSACTION RECORDS

53. Subject to subsection 63(1), every person or entity that is required to keep and retain a large cash transaction record under these Regulations shall ascertain, in accordance with paragraph 64(1), the identity of every person with whom the person or entity conducts a transaction in respect of which that record must be kept, other than a deposit made to a business account or a deposit made by means of an automated banking machine.

SUSPICIOUS TRANSACTIONS

53.1 (1) Except where identity has been previously ascertained as required by these Regulations, every person or entity that is subject to these Regulations shall take reasonable measures to ascertain, in accordance with subsection 64(1), the identity of every person with whom the person or entity conducts a transaction that is required to be reported to the Centre under section 7 of the Act.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the person or entity believes that complying with that subsection would inform the person that the transaction and the related information is being reported under section 7 of the Act.

53.2 For the purposes of section 9.2 of the Act, the prescribed circumstances are the circumstances in which a financial entity, a securities dealer or a casino is required to ascertain the identity of a person or confirm the existence of an entity in connection with the opening of a new account in accordance with section 64, 65 or 66, as applicable.

FINANCIAL ENTITIES

54. (1) Subject to subsections 62 and section 63, every financial entity shall

(a) in accordance with paragraph 64(1), ascertain the identity of every person who signs a signature card in respect of an account, other than a credit card account, that the financial entity opens, except in the case of a business account the signature card of which is signed by more than three persons authorized to act with respect to the account, if the financial entity has ascertained the identity of at least three of those persons;

(b) in accordance with paragraph 64(1), ascertain the identity of every person who has not signed a signature card in respect of an account held with the financial entity and has not been authorized to act with respect to such an account but who conducts

(i) a transaction whereby the financial entity issues or redeems money orders, traveller's cheques or other similar negotiable instruments in an amount of $3,000 or more,

(ii) an electronic funds transfer, as prescribed by subsection 66.1(2), in an amount of $1,000 or more sent at the request of a client, or

(iii) a foreign currency exchange transaction of $3,000 or more;

(d) in accordance with section 65, confirm the existence of and ascertain the name and address of every corporation for which the financial entity opens an account and the names of the corporation's directors; and

(e) in accordance with section 66, confirm the existence of every entity, other than a corporation, for which the financial entity opens an account.

(2) For the purpose of paragraph (1)(a), where the person who signs a signature card is under 12 years of age, the financial entity shall ascertain the identity of the father, mother or guardian of the person in accordance with paragraph 64(1).

54.1 Subject to subsections 62(1) and (2) and section 63, every financial entity shall

(a) where the financial entity opens a credit card account in the name of a person, ascertain their identity in accordance with subsection 64(1.1);

(b) where the financial entity opens a credit card account in the name of a corporation, confirm the existence of and ascertain the name and address of the corporation and the names of its directors in accordance with section 65; and

(c) where the financial entity opens a credit card account in the name of an entity other than a corporation, confirm the existence of the entity in accordance with section 66.

54.2 Subject to section 62 and subsection 63(5), every financial entity shall

(a) in accordance with subsection 67.1(2), take reasonable measures to determine whether a person for whom the financial entity opens an account is a politically exposed foreign person;

(b) take reasonable measures, based on the level of the risk referred to in subsection 9.6(2) of the Act, to determine whether a person who is an existing account holder is a politically exposed foreign person;

(c) in accordance with subsection 67.2(3), take reasonable measures to determine whether the person who initiates an electronic funds transfer of $100,000 or more is a politically exposed foreign person; and

(d) in accordance with subsection 67.2(3), take reasonable measures to determine whether the person who is the beneficiary of an electronic funds transfer of $100,000 or more is a politically exposed foreign person.

55. Subject to sections 62 and 63, every trust company shall, in addition to complying with section 54,

(a) in accordance with paragraph 64(1), ascertain the identity of every person who is the settlor of an inter vivos trust in respect of which the company is required to keep records under section 15;

(b) in accordance with section 65, confirm the existence of and ascertain the name and address of every corporation that is the settlor of an institutional trust in respect of which the company is required to keep records in accordance with section 15;

The Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Regulations effective June 23, 2008
(unofficial)

(c) in accordance with section 66, confirm the existence of every entity, other than a corporation, that is the settlor of an institutional trust in respect of which the company is required to keep records in accordance with section 15;

(d) where an entity is authorized to act as a co-trustee of any trust

(i) confirm the existence of the entity and ascertain its name and address in accordance with section 65 or confirm the existence of the entity in accordance with section 66, as the case may be, and

(ii) in accordance with paragraph 64(1), ascertain the identity of all persons — up to three — who are authorized to give instructions with respect to the entity's activities as co-trustee; and

(e) in accordance with paragraph 64(1)), ascertain the identity of each person who is authorized to act as co-trustee of any trust.

CORRESPONDENT BANKING RELATIONSHIPS

55.1 Every financial entity that enters into a correspondent banking relationship shall

(a) ascertain the name and address of the foreign financial institution by examining a copy of the foreign financial institution's banking licence, banking charter, authorization or certification to operate from the relevant regulatory agency or certificate of corporate status or a copy of another similar document; and

(b) take reasonable measures to ascertain, based on publicly available information, whether there are any civil or criminal penalties that have been imposed on the foreign financial institution in respect of anti-money laundering or anti-terrorist financing requirements and, if so, to conduct, for the purpose of detecting any transactions that are required to be reported under section 7 of the Act, ongoing monitoring of all transactions in the context of the correspondent banking relationship.

55.2 In respect of correspondent banking relationships, where the customer of the foreign financial institution has direct access to the services provided under the correspondent banking relationship, the financial entity shall take reasonable measures to ascertain whether

(a) the foreign financial institution has, in respect of those of its customers that have direct access to the accounts of the financial entity, met requirements that are consistent with the requirements of sections 54 and 64; and

(b) the foreign financial institution has agreed to provide relevant customer identification data upon request to the financial entity.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES AND LIFE INSURANCE BROKERS OR AGENTS

56. (1) Subject to subsections (2), section 56.2 and subsections 62(2) and (3) and 63(1), every life insurance company or life insurance broker or agent shall ascertain, in accordance with subsection 64(1), the identity of every person who conducts, on the person's own behalf or on behalf of a third party, a transaction with that life insurance company or life insurance broker or agent for which a client information record is required to be kept under section 19.

(2) A life insurance company or life insurance broker or agent is not required to ascertain the identity of a person where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the person's identity has been ascertained in accordance with paragraph 64(1) by another life insurance company or life insurance broker or agent in respect of the same transaction or of a transaction that is part of a series of transactions that includes the original transaction.

(3) Subject to subsections 62(2) and 63(2) and (4), every life insurance company or life insurance broker or agent shall, in accordance with section 65, confirm the existence of and ascertain the name and address of every corporation in respect of which they are required to keep a client information record and the names of the corporation's directors.

(4) Subject to subsections 62(2) and 63(3), every life insurance company or life insurance broker or agent shall, in accordance with section 66, confirm the existence of every entity, other than a corporation, in respect of which they are required to keep a client information record.

56.1 Subject to section 56.2 and subsections 62(2) and 63(5), every life insurance company or life insurance broker or agent shall, in accordance with subsection 67.2(3), take reasonable measures to determine if a person who makes a lump-sum payment of $100,000 or more in respect of an immediate or deferred annuity or life insurance policy on their own behalf or on behalf of a third party is a politically exposed foreign person.

56.2 Sections 56 and 56.1 do not apply to a life insurance company or a life insurance broker or agent when they are dealing in reinsurance.

SECURITIES DEALERS

57. (1) Subject to section 62 and subsection 63(1), every securities dealer shall ascertain, in accordance with paragraph 64(1), the identity of every person who is authorized to give instructions in respect of an account for which a record must be kept by the securities dealer under subsection 23(1).

(a) by referring to the person's birth certificate, driver's licence, provincial health insurance card (if such use of the card is not prohibited by the applicable provincial law), passport or any similar record, or

(b) where the person is not physically present when the account is opened, the credit card application is submitted, the trust is established, the client information record is created or the transaction is conducted;

(i) by obtaining the person's name, address and date of birth and

(A) confirming that one of the following entities has identified the person in accordance with paragraph (a), namely,

(I) an entity, referred to in any of paragraphs 5(a) to (g) of the Act, that is affiliated with the entity ascertaining the identity of the person,

(II) an entity that carries on activities outside Canada similar to the activities of a person or entity referred to in any of paragraphs 5(a) to (g) of the Act and that is affiliated with the entity ascertaining the identity of the person, or

(III) an entity that is a member of the same association — being a central cooperative credit society as defined in section 2 of the Cooperative Credit Associations Act— as the entity ascertaining the identity of the person, and

(B) verifying that the name, address and date of birth in the record kept by that affiliated entity or that entity that is a member of the same association corresponds to the information provided in accordance with these Regulations by the person, or

(ii) subject to subsection (1.3), by using one of the following combinations of the identification methods set out in Part A of Schedule 7, namely,

(A) methods 1 and 3,

(B) methods 1 and 4,

(C) methods 1 and 5,

(D) methods 2 and 3,

(E) methods 2 and 4,

(F) methods 2 and 5,

(G) methods 3 and 4, or

(H) methods 3 and 5.

(1.1) In the case referred to in paragraph 54.1(a), the identity of a person shall be ascertained by a person or entity, at the time referred to in subsection (2) and in accordance with subsection (3),

(a) by referring to the person's birth certificate, driver's licence, provincial health insurance card (if such use of the card is not prohibited by the applicable provincial law), passport or other similar document; or

(b) where the person is not physically present when the credit card application is submitted,

(i) by obtaining the person's name, address and date of birth and

(A) confirming that one of the following entities has identified the person in accordance with paragraph (a), namely,

(I) an entity, referred to in any of paragraphs 5(a) to (g) of the Act, that is affiliated with the entity ascertaining the identity of the person,

(II) an entity that carries on activities outside Canada similar to the activities of a person or entity referred to in any of paragraphs 5(a) to (g) of the Act and that is affiliated with the entity ascertaining the identity of the person, or

(III) an entity that is a member of the same association — being a central cooperative credit society as defined in section 2 of the Cooperative Credit Associations Act — as the entity ascertaining the identity of the person, and

(B) verifying that the name, address and date of birth in the record kept by that affiliated entity or that entity that is a member of the same association corresponds to the information provided in accordance with these Regulations by the person,

(ii) subject to subsection (1.3), by using a combination of any two identification methods referred to in either Part A or Part B of Schedule 7, or

(iii) subject to subsection (1.3), where the person has no credit history in Canada and the credit limit on the card is not more than $1,500, by using a combination of any two identification methods referred to in any of Parts A, B and C of Schedule 7.

(unofficial)

(1.2) For the purposes of paragraphs (1)(b)(i) and (1.1)(b)(i), an entity is affiliated with another entity if one of them is wholly-owned by the other or both are wholly-owned by the same entity.

(1.3) A combination of methods referred to in subparagraph (1)(b)(ii) or (1.1)(b)(ii) or (iii) shall not be relied on by a person or entity to ascertain the identity of a person unless

(a) the information obtained in respect of that person from each of the two applicable identification methods is determined by the person or entity to be consistent; and

(b) the information referred to in paragraph (a) is determined by the person or entity to be consistent with the information in respect of that person, if any, that is contained in a record kept by the person or entity under these Regulations.

(2) The identity shall be ascertained

(a) in the cases referred to in paragraphs 54(1)(a), subsection 57(1) and 60(a), before any transaction other than an initial deposit is carried out on an account;

(b) in the cases referred to in section 53, paragraphs 54(1)(b), subsection 59(1) and paragraphs 60(b) and 61(b), at the time of the transaction;

(b.1) in the case referred to in section 53.1, before the transaction is reported as required under section 7 of the Act;

(b.2) in the case referred to in paragraph 54.1(a), before any credit card is activated;

(c) in the cases referred to in paragraphs 55(a), (d) and (e), within 15 days after the trust company becomes the trustee;

(d) in the cases referred to in subsection 56(1) and paragraph 61(a), within 30 days after the client information record is created;

(e) in the cases referred to in paragraphs 59.1(a) and 59.2(1)(a), at the time of the transaction; and

(f) in the case referred to in subsection 62(3), at the time a contribution in respect of an individual member of the group plan is made to the plan, if

(i) the member's contribution is not made as described in paragraph 62(3)(a), or

(ii) the existence of the plan sponsor has not been confirmed in accordance with section 65 or 66.

(3) Unless otherwise specified in these Regulations, only original documents that are valid and have not expired may be referred to for the purpose of ascertaining identity in accordance with paragraph (1)(a) or (1.1)(a).

64.1 (1) A person or entity required to take measures to ascertain identity under subsection 64(1) or (1.1) may rely on an agent or mandatary to take the identification measures described in paragraph 64(1)(a) or (1.1)(a), respectively, only if that person or entity has entered into an agreement or arrangement, in writing, with that agent or mandatary for the purposes of ascertaining identity.

(2) A person or entity that enters into an agreement or arrangement referred to in subsection (1) must obtain from the agent or mandatary the customer information obtained by the agent or mandatary under that agreement or arrangement.

65. (1) The existence of a corporation shall be confirmed and its name and address and the names of its directors shall be ascertained as of the time referred to in subsection (2), by referring to its certificate of corporate status, a record that it is required to file annually under the applicable provincial securities legislation or any other record that ascertains its existence as a corporation. The record may be in paper form or in an electronic version that is obtained from a source that is accessible to the public.

(2) The information referred to in subsection (1) shall be ascertained,

(a) in the case referred to in paragraphs 54(1)(d) and 60(e), before any transaction other than the initial deposit is carried out on the account;

(a.1) in the case referred to in paragraph 54.1(b), before any credit card is issued on the account;

(b) in the cases referred to in paragraphs 55(b) and (d), within 15 days after the trust company becomes the trustee;

(c) in the cases referred to in subsections 56(3) and 59(2) and paragraph 61(c), within 30 days after the client information record is created; and

(d) in the case referred to in subsection 57(3), within 30 days after the opening of the account, and

(e) in the cases referred to in paragraphs 59.1(b) and 59.2(1)(b), within 30 days after the transaction.

(3) Where the information has been ascertained by referring to an electronic version of a record, the person or entity required to ascertain the information shall keep a record that

Appendix C-2

The Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Regulations effective June 23, 2008
(unofficial)

sets out the corporation's registration number, the type of record referred to and the source of the electronic version of the record.

(4) Where the information has been ascertained by referring to a paper copy of a record, the person or entity required to ascertain the information shall retain the record or a copy of it.

66. (1) The existence of an entity, other than a corporation, shall be confirmed as of the time referred to in subsection (2), by referring to a partnership agreement, articles of association or other similar record that ascertains its existence. The record may be in paper form or in an electronic version that is obtained from a source that is accessible to the public.

(2) The existence of the entity shall be confirmed

(a) in the case referred to in paragraphs 54(1)(e) and 60(f), before any transaction other than the initial deposit is carried out on the account;

(a.1) in the case referred to in paragraph 54.1(c), before any credit card is issued on the account;

(b) in the cases referred to in paragraphs 55(c) and (d), within 15 days after the trust company becomes the trustee;

(c) in the cases referred to in subsections 56(4) and 59(3) and paragraph 61(d), within 30 days after the client information record is created; and

(d) in the case referred to in subsection 57(4), within 30 days after the account is opened, and

(e) in the cases referred to in paragraphs 59.1(c) and 59.2(1)(c), within 30 days after the transaction.

(3) Where the existence of the entity has been confirmed by referring to an electronic version of a record, the person or entity required to confirm that information shall keep a record that sets out the registration number of the entity whose existence is being confirmed, the type of record referred to and the source of the electronic version of the record.

(4) Where the existence of the entity has been confirmed by referring to a paper copy of a record, the person or entity required to confirm that information shall retain the record or a copy of it.

66.1 (1) The prescribed persons or entities for the purpose of section 9.5 of the Act are every financial entity, money services business and casino that is required to keep a record under these Regulations in respect of an electronic funds transfer referred to in subsection (2).

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the prescribed electronic funds transfers to which section 9.5 of the Act applies are electronic funds transfers as defined in subsection 1(2) — but including transfers within Canada that are SWIFT MT 103 messages — that are sent at the request of a client by a means that allows for the information referred to in paragraph 9.5(a) of the Act to be included with the transfers.¹

(3) For greater certainty, subsection (2) does not apply in respect of

(a) a transfer carried out using a credit or debit card, if the recipient has an agreement with the payment service provider permitting payment by such means for the provision of goods and services;

(b) a transfer where the recipient withdraws cash from their account;

(c) a transfer carried out by means of a direct deposit or a pre-authorized debit; or

(d) a transfer carried out using cheque imaging and presentment.

67. Every person or entity that is required by these Regulations to ascertain the identity of a person in connection with a record that the person or entity has created and is required to keep under these Regulations, or a transaction that they have carried out and in respect of which they are required to keep a record under these Regulations or under section 12.1 of the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Suspicious Transaction Reporting Regulations, shall set out on or in or include with that record the name of that person and

(a) if a birth certificate, driver's licence, provincial health insurance card (if such use of the card is not prohibited by the applicable provincial law), passport or any similar record is relied on to ascertain the person's identity, the type and reference number of the record, and the place where it was issued;

(b) if a confirmation of a cleared cheque from a financial entity is relied on to ascertain the person's identity, the name of the financial entity and the account number of the deposit account on which the cheque was drawn

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the prescribed electronic funds transfers to which section 9.5 of the Act applies are those as defined in subsection 1(2), but including transfers within Canada that are SWIFT MT 103 messages.

(c) if the person's identity is ascertained by confirming that they hold a deposit account with a financial entity, the name of the financial entity where the account is held and the number of the account and the date of the confirmation;

(d) if the person's identity is ascertained by relying on a previous confirmation of their identity by an entity that is affiliated with the entity ascertaining the identity of the person or an entity that is a member of the same association — being a central cooperative credit society as defined in section 2 of the Cooperative Credit Associations Act — as the entity ascertaining the identity of the person, the name of that entity and the type and reference number of the record that entity previously relied on to ascertain the person's identity;

(e) if an identification product is used to ascertain the person's identity, the name of the identification product, the name of the entity offering the product, the search reference number and the date the product was used to ascertain the person's identity;

(f) if the person's identity is ascertained by consulting a credit file kept by an entity in respect of the person, the name of the entity and the date of the consultation;

(g) if the person's identity is ascertained from an attestation signed by a commissioner of oaths in Canada or a guarantor in Canada, the attestation;

(h) if the person's identity is ascertained by consulting an independent data source, the name of the data source, the date of the consultation and the information provided by the data source;

(i) if the person's identity is ascertained by relying on a utility invoice issued in the person's name, the invoice or a legible photocopy or electronic image of the invoice;

(j) if the person's identity is ascertained by relying on a photocopy or electronic image of a document provided by the person, that photocopy or electronic image; and

(k) if the person's identity is ascertained by relying on a deposit account statement issued in the person's name by a financial entity, a legible photocopy or electronic image of the statement.

DUE DILIGENCE MEASURES IN RESPECT OF POLITICALLY EXPOSED FOREIGN PERSONS

67.1 (1) A financial entity or securities dealer that has determined under paragraph 54.2(a) or (b) or section 57.1 that a person is a politically exposed foreign person shall

(a) take reasonable measures to establish the source of the funds that have been, will be or are expected to be deposited in the account in question;

Appendix C-2

The Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Regulations effective June 23, 2008
(unofficial)

(b) subject to subsections (2) and (3), obtain the approval of senior management to keep the account open; and

(c) conduct enhanced ongoing monitoring of the activities in respect of the account for the purpose of detecting transactions that are required to be reported to the Centre under section 7 of the Act.

(2) The determination referred to in paragraph 54.2(a) and section 57.1(1) as to whether a person is a politically exposed foreign person shall be made, and the approval referred to in paragraph (1)(b) shall be obtained, within 14 days from the day on which the account is activated.

(3) The approval referred to in paragraph (1)(b) shall be obtained within 14 days after the day on which a financial entity or securities dealer has determined under paragraph 54.2(b) or subsection 57.1(2) that a person is a politically exposed foreign person.

67.2 (1) A financial entity, life insurance company or life insurance broker or agent or money services business that has determined under paragraph 54.2(c), section 56.1 or paragraph 59(5)(a) that a person is a politically exposed person shall take reasonable measures to establish the source of the funds that have been used for the transaction in question.

(2) Where a financial entity, life insurance company, life insurance broker or agent or money services business has determined under paragraph 54.2(c) or (d), section 56.1 or subsection 59(5) that a person is a politically exposed foreign person, a member of senior management shall review the transaction in question in accordance with subsection (3).

(3) The determination, referred to in paragraphs 54.2(c) and (d), section 56.1 and subsection 59(5), as to whether a person is a politically exposed foreign person and the review of a transaction referred to in subsection (2) shall be completed within 14 days after the day on which the transaction occurred.

RETENTION OF RECORDS

68. Where any record is required to be kept under these Regulations, a copy of it may be kept

(a) in a machine-readable form, if a paper copy can be readily produced from it; or

(b) in an electronic form, if a paper copy can be readily produced from it and an electronic signature of the person who must sign the record in accordance with these Regulations is retained.

69. (1) Subject to subsection (2), every person or entity that is required to obtain, keep or create records under these Regulations shall retain those records for a period of at least five years following

(a) in respect of signature cards, account operating agreements, client credit files and account application forms, the day of the closing of the account to which they relate;

(b) in respect of client information records, certificates of corporate status, records that are required to be filed annually under the applicable provincial securities legislation or other similar records that ascertain the existence of a corporation, and records that ascertain the existence of an entity, other than a corporation, including partnership agreements and articles of association, the day on which the last business transaction is conducted; and

(c) in respect of all other records, the day on which they were created.

(2) Where records that an individual keeps under these Regulations are the property of the individual's employer or a person or entity with which the individual is in a contractual relationship, the individual is not required to retain the records after the end of the individual's employment or contractual relationship.

70. Every record that is required to be kept under these Regulations shall be retained in such a way that it can be provided to an authorized person within 30 days after a request is made to examine it under section 62 of the Act.

COMPLIANCE

71. (1) For the purposes of subsection 9.6(1) of the Act, a person or entity referred to in that subsection shall, as applicable, implement the compliance program referred to in that subsection by.

(a) appointing a person — who, where the compliance program is being implemented by a person, may be that person — who is to be responsible for the implementation of the program;

(b) developing and applying written compliance policies and procedures that are kept up to date and, in the case of an entity, are approved by a senior officer; ;

(c) assessing and documenting, in a manner that is appropriate for the person or entity, the risk referred to in subsection 9.6(2) of the Act, taking into consideration

(i) the clients and business relationships of the person or entity,

(ii) the products and delivery channels of the person or entity,

(iii) the geographic location of the activities of the person or entity, and

Appendix C-2

The Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Regulations effective June 23, 2008
(unofficial)

(iv) any other relevant factor;

(d) if the person or entity has employees, agents or persons authorized to act on their behalf, developing and maintaining a written an ongoing compliance training program for those employees, agents or persons; and

(e) instituting and documenting a review of the policies and procedures, the risk assessment and the training program for the purpose of testing their effectiveness, which review is required to be carried out every two years by an internal or external auditor of the person or entity, or by the person or entity if they do not have such an auditor.

(2) For the purposes of the compliance program referred to in subsection 9.6(1) of the Act, every entity referred to in that subsection shall report the following in written form to a senior officer within 30 days after the assessment:

(a) the findings of the review referred to in paragraph (1)(e);

(b) any updates made to the policies and procedures within the reporting period; and

(c) the status of the implementation of the updates to those policies and procedures.

71.1 The prescribed special measures that are required to be taken by a person or entity referred to in subsection 9.6(1) of the Act for the purpose of subsection 9.6(3) of the Act are the development and application of written policies and procedures for

(a) taking reasonable measures to keep client identification information and the information referred to in section 11.1 up to date;

(b) taking reasonable measures to conduct ongoing monitoring for the purpose of detecting transactions that are required to be reported to the Centre under section 7 of the Act; and

(c) mitigating the risks identified in accordance with subsection 9.6(3) of the Act.

NON-FACE-TO-FACE IDENTIFICATION METHODS

PART A

IDENTIFICATION METHODS FOR ALL REPORTING ENTITIES

IDENTIFICATION PRODUCT METHOD

1. This method of ascertaining a person's identity consists of referring to an independent and reliable identification product that is based on personal information in respect of the person and a Canadian credit history of the person of at least six month's duration.

CREDIT FILE METHOD

2. This method of ascertaining a person's identity consists of confirming, after obtaining authorization from the person, their name, address and date of birth by referring to a credit file in respect of that person in Canada that has been in existence for at least six months.

ATTESTATION METHOD

3. (1) This method of ascertaining a person's identity consists of obtaining an attestation from a commissioner of oaths in Canada, or a guarantor in Canada, that they have seen one of the documents referred to in paragraph 64(1)(a) of these Regulations. The attestation must be produced on a legible photocopy of the document (if such use of the document is not prohibited by the applicable provincial law) and must include

(a) the name, profession and address of the person providing the attestation;

(b) the signature of the person providing the attestation; and

(c) the type and number of the identifying document provided by the person.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), a guarantor is a person engaged in one of the following professions in Canada:

(a) dentist;

(b) medical doctor;
