- This list replaces the previous list provided in IIROC Notice 21-0197.
- For the purposes of section 5312, only the individual constituent securities within each market index listed above (in column 2) are eligible for margin at 50%. This margin eligibility does not extend to other listings on the respective acceptable exchanges outside of Canada and United States (column 3).

- The constituent securities within the market index may change when the acceptable exchange adjusts the composition of the market index. The Dealer Member is expected to review the index composition on a regular basis to determine which foreign listed equity securities are eligible for margin on each market index listed above.
